Membership Increase Set In Walteria

There is a buzz of activity in all departments of Walteria Baptist church, Park and Newton streets, this week. In the Sunday morning service Pastor Husted and the church officials extended church membership to Linda Howe, Sharon Brennan, Lorraine Maynes, and Irene Mills. Ladies of the church gathered in the home of Mrs. Clarence Palm for a time of special prayer for the needs of the church.

Each Saturday is work day for the men, when a group gathers with hammers to help in the erection of the Sunday school building. Nelson Harvey acts as chairman to direct the activity.

Those who assist are: Messrs. Jerry Richards, Charles Vosper, George Kiesel, Charles Lilly, Dick Langraff, Lloyd Hughes, and Calvin Caruff.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ward are lining up ideas for the young people's group that meets each week at 6 p.m. Sunday evening service has been set up to begin at 7 p.m. The public is welcome at all services, said the pastor.

Speaker Will View Middle East Crisis

Israel is in the headlines again. What is behind the fighting and dissension in the Middle East? Rabbi Franklin Cohn of Kadimah Temple, Los Angeles, will attempt to analyze the situation in Israel for those attending the regular monthly meeting of Temple Menorah, Wednesday, January 18, 8:30 p.m., at the South Bay Jewish Community center, 112 1/2 North Catalina avenue, Redondo Beach.

Rabbi Cohn will discuss the topic, "Crisis in the Middle East."

By popular request, the program committee is again presenting Shifra Boxer, who will demonstrate and lead those attending in some typical Israeli folk dances.

Refreshments and a social hour will round out the evening. Those persons new in the area who desire further information may contact Ben Kaufman, president, FR. 4-5995.

Volunteer Bureau Presents Show for Harbor General

The Torrance Volunteer Bureau under the sponsorship of the Pilot Club of Torrance brought Jime de Gallet to play and sing for the elderly people of Harbor General hospital on Christmas eve. De Gallet brought his portable organ and moved from ward to ward singing Christmas carols for the patients. The noted organist gave his time for this very special show because, he said, "I believe that, too often, older people are forgotten at Christmas time."

He is well known for his numerous appearances in supper clubs across the country. He has appeared at the Chez Paree in Chicago, The Alpine Village in Cleveland, The Wonder Bar in Detroit, and Ben Pollock's on the Sunset Strip. He appeared with the Schubert shows for three years.

Young Adult Group Plans Two Movies

The monthly meeting of the Young Adult Fellowship will be held on Sunday, January 15, at the First Christian church. The program to begin at 7:30 will feature two movies, "Let George Do It" with Danny Thomas and Dennis Day, and "Government Is Your Business."

Both films are circulated by the Christophers. After the program, a discussion will be held and refreshments will be served. There will be nursery care provided for the children.
